

May 21, 1975

Jack Simonson

Services for Jack G. Simonson, 59, Turton resident, were held Monday, May 19, at the First Presbyterian Church at 2 p.m. with the Rev. Robert Carey officiating. Burial was in the Groton Union Cemetery.

Mr. Simonson died at his home Friday, May 16.

Mrs. Ben Anderson, organist, accompanied Mrs. Robert Carey and Mrs. Clayton Sternhagen who sang a duet.

Honorary casket bearers were Earl Christensen, Delbert Fey, Frank Halfman, Elmer Hanson, Thomas Huber, Bill Imms, Lloyd Ladwig, Florian McPartland, Joe Rahm, Carroll Spear, Wayne Stoller, Claude Taylor, Irvin Troske and Oscar Wolner. Active casket bearers were Dana Craig, James Fiedler, Louis Kraft, Orville Simonson, Paul Thompson and William Thompson.

Jack Simonson was born May 15, 1916, at James to Mr. and Mrs. Ted Simonson. He lived in the Groton area until October of 1949 when he moved to Turton with his brother. He was a farmer. He was a member of the township board, the elevator board, was director of the Farmers Union, a former school board member and a past member of the Spink County Farmers Administration. He was also a member of the Masonic Lodge of Conde.

Survivors include one brother, Donald of Turton; and six sisters, Mrs. C.C. (Harriet) Lee and Mrs. Robert S. (Mary) Thompson, both of Aberdeen, Mrs. Cecil (Elaine) Lorenz of Downing, Wis., Mrs. Peter (Jean) Amonson of Portland, Ore., Mrs. Richard (Dorothy) Fiedler of Selby and Mrs. Willis (Janice) Nesheim of St. Louis, Mo.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one sister.